

My wife and I are opposed to any changes to the existing law which would create an atmosphere where the majority of the media outlets in our area could be held by one company. We would like to see more local ownership of radio and television stations.